Safety awards for green spaces

PARK LIFE: Boris Johnson, with assistant commissioner Simon Burns, Richard Baber and Andy Johnson.

TWO of the borough's green spaces have been awarded Safer Park awards.

Barking Park scooped gold and Mayesbrook Park a silver award.

The accolades recognise the anti-crime measures park groups, the council, police and the public have taken to increase safety in Barking and Dagenham's parks and green spaces.

The Mayor said London boasts thousands of beautiful green spaces, but sadly, some attract anti-social behaviour including gangs, vandalism and dangerous dogs.

He explained: "I have always promised to protect and to improve the green spaces and parks of this great city, and I am immensely proud of the progress I have made. Londoners, quite rightly, love and cherish their parks so we are right to make them safer and more attractive wherever we can, for everyone to enjoy."

COULD YOU HELP WITH PARK WATCH SCHEME?

VOLUNTEERS are needed to help keep Barking Park a safe place to visit.

Park Watch is recruiting people to work alongside wardens and police. Volunteers will be given training to report crime and anti-social behaviour.

A spokesman for Barking and Dagenham Council said: "The extra information will allow the authorities to tackle issues in a better way."

Park Watch has received a £1,000 grant to spend on signs, leaflets and events to attract volunteers.

The Friends of Barking Park are holding a family fun day on March 10 to formally launch the scheme, with free activities from 11am to 3pm.

Councillor Bert Collins, cabinet member for culture, leisure and sport, said: "Barking Park is a safe place to visit and levels of crime are already very low.

"However, just one incident is too many and that's why we want to launch this scheme to try and make the park as crime free as possible.

"This will enable us to target resources more effectively to deal with any problems. It also means we can keep the park in good condition."

Anyone interested should ring Emma Tuckey, Barking Park Education and Outreach Ranger on 0208 594 3698.

School reopens

EASTBURY primary school reopened on Tuesday, after engineers carried out full gas safety tests. The school had been closed on Monday as a precaution due to a suspected gas leak.

Engineers carried out checks during the day and confirmed the gas systems supplying the school are in good working order. The supply to the kitchen has been restored and the school will now be open as usual.

Quiz night

WHY not enjoy taxing your brain in the delightful surroundings of Eastbury Manor house, in Eastbury Square, Barking?

A quiz night with fish and chip supper will be held there on March 10 from 7.30pm.

Anyone wishing to take part is encouraged to call 020 8724 1002 for more information or to book a place.

Cycle fundraiser

A CASE worker for Dagenham and Rainham MP Jon Cruddas to cycle 4,000km from the Hook of Holland to Istanbul in Turkey. Ben Grubb, 21, said he was looking forward to crossing 11 countries with just a bike, tent and a stove.

He is raising money for Dagenham charity, The Osborne Partnership, which provides training to vulnerable adults.

Carpet salesman takes to the skies to earn a crust

FORGET flying carpets, a local carpet salesman is buying up Boeing 747s and fighter jets. Akbar Ali has been running the hugely successful Carpets for Less store in Beckton, for the last six years.

But Akbar now has additional, altogether more interesting way of earning a crust – recycling aeroplanes.

Akbar, from Chadwell Heath said: "I now run a company called Imperial Air Salvage. I love aeroplanes so this is great."

"I employ a pilot to fly the aeroplanes."

"I am currently in the process of training to become a pilot."

Most of the aeroplanes end up at a recycling plant in Bangladesh.

The aeroplanes that are not safe enough to fly are cut up into smaller pieces and then shipped out to the recycling plant.

Akbar said: "The smaller pieces are then shredded and the aluminium is then re-used."

Captain Mustafa Azim is Akbar's pilot.

He said: "Akbar's company Imperial Air Salvage has become the third largest firm in the UK breaking jets."

"He has aircraft projects in Bulgaria, Australia, Bangladesh and in the UK Bruntingthorpe, Manston, Lasham in Dorset and is buying his first Boeing 747 300 series."

"He also owns a Mig fighter as his personal jet."

"Yet despite all this, Akbar is a very humble upstanding member of the community."

HIGH FLYER: Akbar Ali.

Vehicle crime going down

BARKING and Dagenham police have reported a reduction in vehicle crime.

In January 2011, 94 vehicles were stolen and there were 146 thefts from vehicles.

In January 2012, 68 vehicles have been stolen with 138 thefts from vehicles.

Borough Commander Gary Buttercase said much of the vehicle crime involved the theft of registration plates to help with fuel theft from petrol stations, avoiding speed camera fines and the congestion charge.

Council freezes tax bill

THE COUNCIL tax bill for Barking and Dagenham residents has been frozen for the fourth consecutive year.

A decision was agreed by councillors at Wednesday's meeting.

The Council tax for 2012/13 is to remain at the current level (for a Band D property at £1,016.40).

Delighted Councillor Rocky Gill, Cabinet Member for Finance said the news would help residents who are facing tough times.

This means that Barking and Dagenham continues to have one of the lowest council tax levels in outer London.

Carnival fever

THOUSANDS of people are expected to flock to Ilford town centre to enjoy this year's Redbridge carnival.

Organisers have vowed the event will be the biggest yet, and have changed the date to coincide with the Queen's Diamond Jubilee to June 4 and 5. Entertainers, performers, foodies, and schools are being urged to get involved with the celebrations this year.

The carnival committee were recently given approval to use Ilford town centre as a venue instead of the former favoured venue, Valentines Park.

This year's procession will start at the town centre at noon on Monday June 4.

It will travel along the High Road into the former Seven Kings Swimming Baths.

From there, a mixed vehicle and foot procession will travel back up the High Road, along Winston Way, down Riches Road back onto the High Road, where it will travel the length of Clements Road and re-enter the High Road from TSB Bank.

There will be face painting, clay and art workshops and bouncy castles in the town centre during the celebrations surrounding the Queen's 60th Year on the throne.

Organiser Wilson Chowdhry said: "During HRH Queen Elizabeth II's reign, Britain has gone through a cultural enrichment, due to the more diverse mix of people living here.

"No more evident than here in Redbridge! It is time to celcelebrate our eclectic culture and fashions in style, in a manner only we know how. So make sure you come out and join us for the party of a lifetime."

ALL WELCOME: Take part in Redbridge carnival

Schools are encouraged to take part this year as the carnival has altered the date to fit in with the school calendar.

Wilson added: "The event is set to be bigger than any previous years and we invite groups who are interesting to take part in the procession, holding a food or charity stall, on stage as a performer in dance, drama or singing, or any other entertainment."

To get involved, committee meetings are held at 57 Green Lane, Ilford, Essex IG1 1XG from 7.30pm on Thursdays, or call 020 8514 0861 or email wilson@aasecurity.co.uk

Line-up announced for V Festival 2012

MANCUNIAN legends the Stone Roses will headline this year's V Festival alongside The Killers.

Also on the bill at Hylands Park on August 18 and 19 will be Snow Patrol, Noel Gallagher's High Flying Birds, Nicki Minaj, Tinie Tempah, Example and Ed Sheeran.

Plus festival-goers will also get the chances to see the likes of David Guetta, Nero, Keane, Madness, James Morrison, Friendly Fires, Happy Mondays, Professor Green, Emeli Sand, Olly Murs, Ben Howard, Noah & The Whale, Rizzle Kicks, Frank Turner, Labrinth, Maverick Sabre, Miles Kane, Rodrigo Y Gabriela, Lissi, Shed Seven, The Ting Tings, The Human League, The Proclaimers and The Stranglers.

The hugely successful Glee Club Comedy Tent also makes its return as the festival's fifth stage this year, with side-splitting performers being announced in the lead up to the festival.

Tickets go on sale to the general public on Friday at 10am, but Essex residents have the opportunity to buy them 24 hours earlier through a dedicated booking system.

While the service does not guarantee the local festival goers tickets, it does give them first chance before they go on wider release.

More information on how and when to apply for the exclusive tickets will be available at www.vfestival.com

Tickets can also be purchased via www.gigsandtours.com and www.seetickets.com

A LOUGHTON mum is going to take the lead female role in a forthcoming rap opera, Working Class Heroes.

Mother-of-four Channelle Hurley is determined to succeed in playing the main female role of a one parent family living on an inner city council estate.

Set against the background of the riots of the summer of 2011 and the hard economic times, Working Class Heroes gives the young people of London and beyond a voice and to showcase their own views and opinions on anti-social behaviour.

The show will run for ten days at The Space, on the Isle of Dogs, from July 3.

Proceeds from the show will go to a charity that helps teen cancer survivors called The Tribute 2 a Legend Trust.

Trust chairman and reformed underworld gangster Dave Courtney said he was delighted to be involved in the show.

Channelle, who began acting training two years ago, said: "This is a superb window of opportunity for me because my passion is acting and has been ever since I can remember.

"I started training to become an actor two years ago.

"I'm a fighter and a great believer in the saying 'if you want something bad enough you will get it.'"

"It's an honour to be given the chance to help raise awareness of all the good work the charity does. It helps discriminated and disabled children be inspired to compete, work together in a team and become winners."

Joe Leslie, Director of Tribute 2 a Legend said: "What a great chance for Channelle, we want to raise as much awareness and funds as possible. The trust knows that football can help support communities and helps to engage and inspire young people who have had a tough start to life."

Council apologises to man after fining

By Peter Henn

A MOTORIST has received an apology after a council sent him a traffic fine for a car that was a different colour, make, and had a different registration plate to his.

Ken Jacobs, of Poplar Street, Romford, recently received a letter from Barking and Dagenham Council, telling him his car had been found to be double parked in Ripple Road, Barking.

However, the 79-year-old said there was only one problem – it was not his car.

The offending car's registration plate was the same as his except for one letter.

Mr Jacobs said: "It's got a similar registration plate, but it's not the same one. I haven't been to Barking for a while, and I wasn't there on the day they said it was."

However, not only is the car in the photograph not his,

Mr Jacobs says it looks 'nothing like' his car.

He said: "My car is silver, but the car that's in the pictures is red. It looks like a sports car."

"It's as clear as a tin of beans and as plain as a packet of cornflakes – that isn't my car."

Despite having repeatedly contacted Barking and Dagenham Council with evidence that the car was not his, Mr Jacobs was told that he faces court action. He explained: "This is utterly ridiculous. They are overlooking what is, to anyone who can see anything, completely and utterly ridiculous."

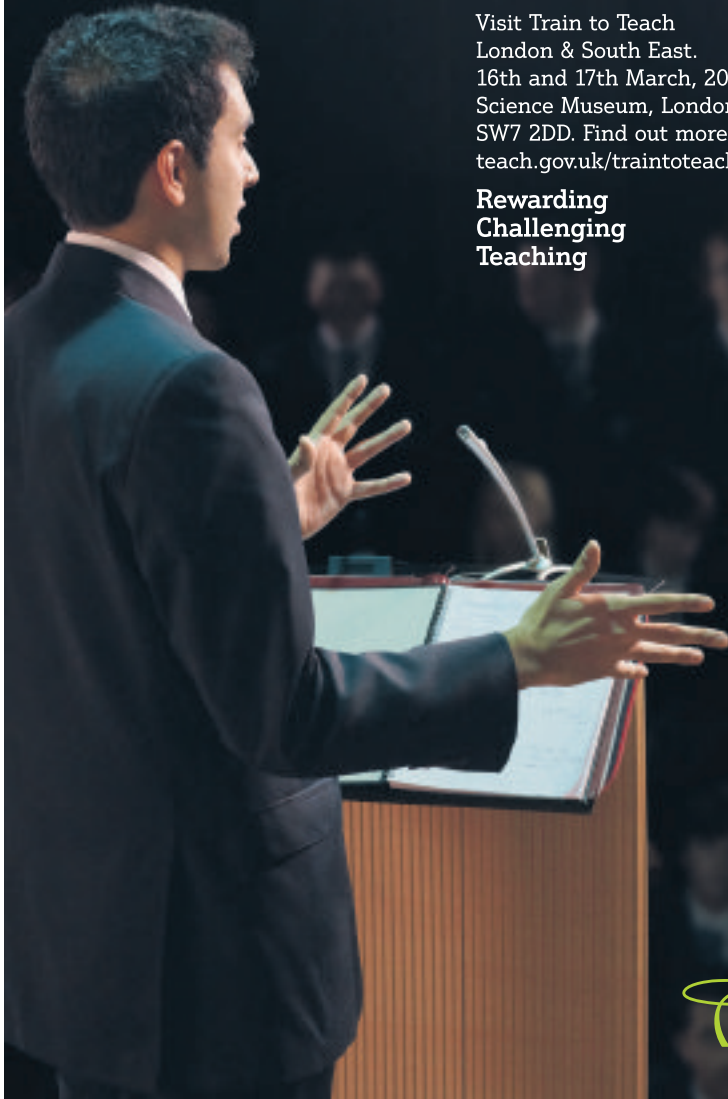

Barking and Dagenham Council said: "After reviewing this ticket it appears it was issued in error to the wrong person."

"We have cancelled the ticket and we apologise to Mr Jacobs for the mistake. We will also be re-issuing the ticket to the correct motorist."

Lions lose last home game of the season

Ice Hockey

LEE VALLEY Lions played their final home game of their 2011/12 season on Saturday against the mighty Peterborough Islanders which ended in a 8-3 defeat.

Riding high in the league, the Islanders were always going to be tough opponents for eighth-placed Lions, but the home side held up well, particularly following the departure of influential player/coach, Blair Dubyk.

Peterborough opened proceedings at 03:57, but the goal came through luck rather than skill as Lions' goalie Steve Grout found himself out of position and unable to reach his net in time.

Lee Valley held the Islanders at bay for the rest of the period, the visitors failing to stamp their mark on the game.

period, his cracking shot taken almost from the blue line. Lee Valley's Romanas Fedotovas and Joe Berry languished in the penalty box soon after, giving Peterborough a 5-on-3 advantage and allowing Stephen Wren, brother of ex-Lee Valley netminder Simon, to fire the puck into the net and take them back into the lead.

A further two Peterborough goals went flying past Grout in the Lions' net in under two minutes, taking the Islanders' tally to 4-1.

Although the Lions held their visitors at bay for a precious few minutes, Peterborough's Dale Jowett powered a mighty slapshot on the angle, smacking the puck into the back of the net in the last minute of the second period. Lee Valley pulled one back as Gary Dodds scored on a delayed penalty, his goal assisted by Berry and Richard Hodge.

The Lions scored first in the final period of the game, this time Fedotovas knocking in the puck via Scott Beeson and fellow defenceman, James Hatfull.

Unfortunately, the second period had already sealed the Lions' fate and Peterborough rounded off their definitive win with goals from James Pentecost and Jonathan Brammall before netminder Grout was rested in favour of George Alley.

The game had been marred by a succession of heavy-handed penalties, for which Lee Valley paid a heavy price, four of Peterborough's goals coming on powerplays. Nonetheless, the home side put on a credible performance against top opposition and gave fans an entertaining game that was worthy of a closer scoreline.

Dagenham & Redbridge

Daggers move off the bottom

DAGENHAM & Redbridge recorded a huge boost in their battle against relegation in League Two with a 2-1 win at Morecombe on Tuesday night.

Josh Scott's header 18 minutes from time gave the Daggers a well-deserved victory and lifted themselves off the bottom above Northampton.

Daggers boss John Still said: "I am really confident that we can survive this year. All we need to do is make sure we can keep our players fit and if we can do that I am positive we will be alright."

"The pitch was heavy but we played some good stuff and some of our movement was terrific and we took the game to them. I'm pleased for the players because they have had so many knocks and kicks in the teeth this year that they deserved something like this."

The Daggers took the lead on 13 minutes when Medy Elito volleyed in but Morecombe levelled before the half hour mark when Kevin Ellison curled a shot past on-loan Watford keeper, Jonathan Bond, in the Daggers goal.

But Scott, returning from a long injury lay off, put Daggers ahead on 71 minutes with a header.

Dagenham had chances to further increase their lead, the best coming from Mark Arber who saw his header cleared off the line.

But the Daggers did enough and now sit behind Hereford, who are just outside the drop zone, on goal difference.

Still added: "We have some really good players at this club but we have had a nightmare time with injuries and that has hit us hard. We have played well in recent weeks and deserved better and I think we were worthy winners on this occasion and could have scored more to be honest."

Rugby Union

Barking lose to relegation rivals while Southend see off Taunton

BARKING'S relegation battle took a huge blow on Saturday, losing to fellow National One strugglers Birmingham & Solihull by 38-3.

It was a huge blow for the Eastenders who remain five points adrift at the bottom behind Stourbridge who fall below Birmingham.

In National Two South, Southend recorded a narrow 33-29 win over Taunton at Warners Bridge.

With both sides looking over their shoulders to the relegation places, it was Southend who prevailed with tries from Martin Freeman, Andrew Frost, Harry Hudson, Mark Billings and Danny Cleare, while Frost kicked four conversions.

Westcliff look safe in National League Three London & Southend, winning 34-8 over relegation-threatened Luton. Tries came from Buster Reynolds (2), Nick Bard, Bryn Hudson and Chris Dudman, while Ben McKeith kicked three conversions and a penalty.

In London One North, Thurrock continue to dominate, winning 34-37 at high-flyers Colchester. Eton Manor moved to fifth with a 10-29 victory over bottom side Braintree, while Brentwood lost 5-17 to Ruislip in the mid-table clash.

Rochford Hundred won 29-33 over fellow strugglers Hammersmith & Fulham.

Allardyce calls for patience following draw

West Ham United

WEST Ham United dropped to second in the Championship after being held to a goalless draw at home by Crystal Palace on Saturday.

With Southampton's 3-0 win at Watford to go above the Irons, it capped off a frustrating afternoon for Sam Allardyce's men who struggled to break down a determined Eagles side under Dougie Freedman.

With a section of fans booing the Hammers off the field at the end, Allardyce said: "As a manager you have to take it but one or two of the players in the dressing room were a little disappointed to get booed because we are at the top of the league. You build up the expectation as we have done recently having done so well, and we didn't deliver today."

"But the fans have to stay with us and have to be patient."

It was a disappointing first half display by the Irons, who could have ended the half 3-0 down if it was not for keeper Robert Green.

The England stopper blocked efforts from Chris Martin, tipped over Wilfried Zaha's deflected effort and Mile Jedinak's long range effort.

Allardyce introduced Carlton Cole and Sam Baldock in the second half and it lifted the Hammers.

Cole's curling effort went inches wide, while Palace keeper Julian Speroni twice blocked efforts from Baldock and James Tomkins headed over.

Palace were more than resolute and had a chance themselves to take the three points, but Jermaine Easter blasted wide.

City suffer shock defeat while Fleet rooted to the bottom

Non League Football

CHELMSFORD City dropped down to fourth place in Blue Square South after their surprise 1-0 defeat at strugglers Bromley on Saturday.

Hakeem Araba scored the only goal of the game on 64 minutes to leave the Clarets still holding on to a play-off spot, but just a point ahead of Sutton United in fifth.

Thurrock look doomed to relegation as they went down 3-1 at Basingstoke Town.

Tim Sills (18), Wes Daly (pen 27) and Shaun McAuley (29) were all on target before a late consolation from Ahmed Dean (80).

Billerica Town maintained their five point gap at the top of Ryman League Premier with a 3-1 win over Cray Wanderers.

Courtney White (13) headed them in front, and struck again ten minutes later. Chris Wild made it three on 27 minutes with Cray pulling a goal back on 35 minutes through Chris Saunders.

AFC Hornchurch, who have two games in hand, kept up the pressure with a 2-0 victory at Kingstonian with Martin Tuohy scoring a double.

Concord Rangers recorded their sixth straight win with a 2-1 success over Leatherhead, despite falling behind to Billy Manners' goal on seven minutes. Tony Stokes missed a penalty on 65 minutes, but substitute Sherwin Stanley equalised shortly afterwards and setup the winner for Stokes late on.

John Easterford netted the only goal of the game to earn Canvey Island a 1-0 win at Tooting & Mitcham United.

Aveley, under new manager Justin Gardner, lost 2-1 at home to Wingate & Finchley to leave themselves mired in the drop zone.

Newcomer Ajibola Olatunbosun headed into his own net on six minutes, but Danny Francis equalised for the Millers in the second half. Wingate took the three points through Leon Smith with 12 minutes to go.

East Thurrock United drew 2-2 at Lewes, despite the hosts playing the majority of the match with ten men following Jack Walder's second bookable offence on 13 minutes.

By then Lewes were ahead through Paul Booth but the Rocks had to wait until the 53rd minute for Greg Cohen's equaliser before Matt Hall put them ahead on 71 minutes.

Lewes earned a share of the points with sub Billy Medlock scoring with seven minutes left.

Ilford are bottom of Ryman League

Division One North following their 4-2 defeat at promotion chasers Needham Market.

Needham went 4-0 up by the 49th minute through Lee McGlone's hat-trick and Duane Wright. Ilford rallied late on through Rob Carter and Sunday Olaniyekun but it was not enough.

Romford lost 3-2 at leaders Leiston with Michael Brothers scoring a hat-trick for the hosts. Kurt Smith scored twice in a minute soon after half-time but Leiston held on.

Waltham Forest lost 2-1 at home to second place Enfield Town, who took the lead on the hour mark through Leon Osei with Liam Hope netting eight minutes later.

Forest had Elton Sackey sent off but pulled a goal back three minutes from time, Arian Retkoceri converting the rebound after Joel Palmer's penalty was saved.

Grays Athletic remain fifth following their 1-1 draw with fellow play-off chasers Harlow Town. Dave Cowley put the visitors ahead on three minutes, but Craig Pope levelled for Grays 13 minutes from the end.

Tilbury moved up to sixth with a 2-0 win at struggling Ware. Alex Read (pen) and Gary Henty were on the scoresheet.

Brentwood Town slipped down to seventh after drawing 1-1 at Potters Bar Town.

Fabian Simms put the hosts ahead after 11 minutes and Ryan Edgar made it 1-1 nine minutes before the interval. It could have three points for Brentwood but Ryan Doyle missed a penalty.

Great Woking Rovers picked up a point in their relegation battle with a 2-2 draw at AFC Sudbury.

Dan Williams put Woking ahead in the 20th minute but Sudbury recovered to lead by half-time thanks to Danny Charge and James Smith.

Woking squared it when Ryan Henshaw was sent off midway through the second half and player-manager Dan Trenkel scored the resulting free-kick.

Redbridge gave their play-off hopes a boost with a 3-2 victory over Soham Town Rangers. Mitchell Das gave them an early lead, and after Andy Coleman replied, Joe Ellul's header put the Motormen 2-1 up after 22 minutes.

Ellul got his second 18 minutes to go but a late header by Dubi Ogbonna made it a tense finish.

Garry Tilley's goal for Chatham inflicted a home defeat for Heybridge Swifts, while it was goalless between Cheshunt and Maldon & Tiptree.
